Anant M. P. Shah, OBE

10 October 2020

Meghraj Group co-founder, Anant M. P. Shah has been honoured by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II by being awarded the title Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) for his services to education, health and animal welfare.

The Queen's Birthday Honours Lists 2020 recognises the outstanding achievements of people across the United Kingdom. Anant is head of the Meghraj family's philanthropic activities* and also is a Trustee/Patron of a number of independent charities, including Trees for Cities, iPartner India and Animal Interfaith Alliance; he very recently retired as a Trustee of Brooke.

Anant was born in Nairobi and educated in London. He was formerly a Director of Meghraj Bank.

*The Meghraj family is committed to contributing to society in the tradition taught by Meghraj Group's Founder, Meghji Pethraj Shah. The family contributes time and funds to various philanthropic initiatives, both directly through the family's foundations, the Meghraj Charitable Foundation and the M. P. Shah Charitable Foundation, and also through independent charities that they actively support.
